MAINLAND KEY (7) chased smart stablemate Move Over home last week which followed an outstanding win on the track a week earlier. Clear favourite on current form. GOT IT SEELED (4) showed his best two back when winning here, then not far away last week in better field. Genuine threat. MY MAN DAN (10) hasn't hit his best form yet but is too good to dismiss. STERLING LUSTRE (6) is a good stand-start horse and is suited to this race.

SAVONA (11) beat a better field here last week and should go another good one, the 10m handicap not likely to cause too many problems. HOLIDAY LOVER (13) showed improved form in the same race and is a class above most when at his best. NANDY NOOT (4) can show quick improvement off fresh up fourth, with SUNNY EVA (5) and SO AND SO (10) for multiple bets.

LETS TALK ART (1) looks perfectly drawn over the 1950m and will give a good account. She can run the gate and keep handy, a big plus over this distance. ARDNASODAN (10) is therefore some chance following her through from inside back row, her form generally handy this grade. NO TAR (2) racing well and worth including, with TRIKITA (14) one to follow, following solid workouts in recent weeks.

Resumed racing with a solid sprint pacing over 390m. Has ability.

Missed the kick again on this track last time. Inconsistent beginner.

He hasn't had the best of luck in recent races. Trifecta prospect here

Lacking the form required to feature in this and must jump to get some

His form has taken a turn for the worse now and the confidence worries

Bounced back to winning form with a very good 30.20s effort. Go again.

Went close last week and is rarely far from the action. Trifecta hope.

Resumed racing with merit but has failed to kick on since that run.

Bounces his form badly but was a solid 30.47s winner on Tuesday.

He was given a short freshen up after a series of sprint races.
